Exodus 8:1 Let My people GO, by CChristianDesigns

Scripture from Exodus 3, 5, 8

One day the Lord said to Moses, “I have witnessed the deep sorrows of my people in Egypt and have heard their cries for freedom from their slave drivers. And now I have come to deliver them from the Egyptians and to bring them out of that land into a good and large land, a land flowing with mild and honey. Now I am going to send you to Pharoah that you might lead my people, the Israelites, out of Egypt.”

Later, Moses and his brother Aaron went to Pharoah and said, “We have a message from the Lord, the God of Israel: ‘Let my people go so that they might hold a feast to me in the wilderness.’ But Pharoah said, “Who is the Lord, that I should listen to him and let Israel go? I do not know the Lord, and I will not let Israel go.” Then Aaron and Moses said, “The God of the Hebrews met with us. Please let us go a three-days’ journey into the wilderness and sacrifice to the Lord our God, so that he will not strike us with death by plague or sword.” But Pharoah treated the Israelites brutally and did not let them go.

“Now you will see what I am going to do to Pharaoh,” the Lord said to Moses. “He must be forced to let my people go; with a strong hand he will drive them out of his land. I am the Lord...I will bring my people into the land I promised to give to Abraham, Isaac, and to Jacob.”

Prayer of the Day

Almighty God, Lord of heaven and earth, we humbly pray that your gracious providence may give and preserve to our use the fruitfulness of the land and the seas, and may prosper all who labor therein; that we, who are constantly receiving good things from your hand, may always give you thanks, through Jesus Christ, our Savior and Lord. Amen
